Fiction

Abish: Faith Among the Lamanites by Brenda Anderson. DBU01194 (7 hrs, 30 mins)

Subtitled "Faith among the Lamanites," this novel is based on the story of Abish as found in the Book of Mormon. When Ammon, a Nephite missionary, is brought to the Lamanite palace, his preaching has extraordinary effects, and makes Abish realize why the Lord has brought her there and what she has to do. Narrated by Roland Pitt.

Carving Angels by Diane Stringam Tolley. DBU01224 (2 hrs)

This Christmas tale finds Santa's chief wood carver, Papa Adam, losing his sight and nearly giving up on life. But his five-year-old granddaughter's request for a carving restores his confidence, and leads to the building of a new sleigh for Santa. Narrated by Thomas Black.

Christmas Creed by Ted Hindmarsh. DBU01225 (2 hrs)

This holiday story centers on Dr. Alexander Pennington III, who leaves his practice on the West Coast to drive to visit his affluent family in New England. When his new, high-tech car breaks down on a secluded mountain freeway, none of his money and influence can help him. But the Stewart family with its three small children can help him. They also help him understand the warmth and caring of Christmas. Revised edition of Cracked Wheat for Christmas. Narrated by Thomas Black.

Count Down to Love by Julie N. Ford. DBU01172 (8 hrs, 35 mins)

This romance begins with Kelly Grace Pickens being abandoned at the altar by her fiancé. Her country music singing career is struggling and she holds the bills to an A-list wedding. So she reluctantly agrees to appear on the reality TV show, Countdown to Love. Narrated by Nick Romero.

Home for Christmas by Anita Stansfield. DBU01246 (5 hrs)

Romance novel about a beautiful young woman who decides to stay in Provo for the holidays rather than go home. Will the love she finds be strong enough to overcome the secrets of her rebellious youth? Narrated by Gary Armstrong. (Replaces RCU 6566)

Journey Home By Jennie Hansen. DBU01251 (10 hrs)

This romance novel is a sequel to Run Away Home (RCU06486). It is the tender story of a man who learns to believe in himself and in God, and of a young woman, raised in Alaska's mining camps and determined to fulfill her lifelong dreams. Narrated by Alan Willey. (Replaces RCU 6545)

The Last Archangel by Michael Young. DBU01167 (11 hrs)

This fantasy centers on Xandir, an archangel who disobeys heavenly law by interfering with humans. As punishment he is reassigned as a destroying angel. He encounters Eden, a New Yorker whose husband is possessed by a powerful demon. When their worlds collide, neither is prepared for the consequences. Narrated by Nathaniel Kemp.

Perfect Token by Cathryn Tex. DBU01136 (7 hrs, 11 mins)

In this romance, Brietta, who is recovering from a messy break-up, leaves her home in Alaska to pursue studies in engineering. She also takes diving and flying lessons, where she becomes interested in John, a flight instructor. John is completely taken with her, but she begins to doubt her feelings when she overhears John talking about an engagement ring and another girl. Narrated by Nick Romero.

Nonfiction

The Broken Heart by Bruce C. Hafen. DBU01243 (7 hrs)

This book, subtitled "Applying the Atonement to Life's Experiences," explains how the atonement can sweeten life's bitterness, and how Christ's strength can compensate for our inadequacies. Narrated by Gary Armstrong. (Replaces CBU 6556)

Exploring the Connection Between Mormons and Masons by Matthew Brown. DBU01037 (4 hrs)

A BYU historian examines the subject of Joseph Smith, Mormonism, and Freemasonry, and clearly addresses the subject's history, theology, traditional understandings, and myths. He offers an engaging, edifying exploration of the relationship between Freemasonry and the blessings of the House of the Lord. Narrated by Roland Pitt.

He Will Give You Rest by Richard Neitzel Holzapfel. DBU01085 (3 hrs)

Subtitled "An Invitation and a Promise," this book discusses what it means to come unto the Savior, the promise of rest He offers, the costs and blessings of discipleship, and how Jesus can ease the burdens we bear in mortality, and provide a bright hope for eternal life. Narrated by Gary Armstrong.

Life's Lessons Learned by Dallin H. Oaks. DBU01214 (3 hrs)

Subtitled "Personal Reflections," this book is an autobiography of learning and application rather than a compendium of doctrine. Elder Oaks invites the reader to join him on a journey through some of the turning points in his life and the lessons learned through devotion to the Savior. Narrated by Thomas Black.

Lorenzo Snow: Spiritual Giant, Prophet of God by Francis Gibbons. DBU01245 (8 hrs)

This biography is another in the author's series on Church Presidents. Shortly after his conversion, this fifth President of the Church received a revelation of the divine potential of man. His revelation on tithing rescued the Church from financial ruin. Narrated by Thomas Black. (Replaces CBU 6316)

Much Ado About Mormons by Rick Walton. DBU01230 (5 hrs)

Subtitled "What Famous People Have Said about the Mormons," this book collects excerpts from speeches and writings of 50 individuals about the LDS people. Some are English, but most are American politicians, writers, actors, and newsmen from President James K. Polk to Walter Cronkite. Narrated by Alan Willey.

Sinner's Advocate by Taylor Hartley. DBU01248 (6 hrs)

Subtitled "An LDS Perspective on the Morality of Criminal Defense," this book by an attorney presents scriptures, testimony, and real-life examples to explain how all followers of Christ have a moral obligation to help heal sinners, not push them down further. Narrated by Thomas Black.
